

YANK AND FLANDERS STORY

A Yank is, among other things, a tug. Flanders is half of Belgium, where they speak Flemish, which is Dutch. Yank and Flanders are married and have, besides children, a Gallery of Ceramics in Norwood Colorado. It is common knowledge that Yank is a meticulous craftsman, whose work carries that certain "on ne sait quoi" associated with years of abuse and incipient old age. Flanders on the other hand offers the wisdom of youth; her work is often anthropomorphic, sometimes representative, whimsical yet poetic, wonderful yet questionable, functional yet annoying. Although both tend to eschew fame, Flanders exhibits worldwide, Yank is routinely acquainted with ceramic luminaries worldwide, and they would like to invite you to darken their door.
